

Penguin Rehab & Release

Mission Statement

Penguin Rehab & Release is a volunteer community group dedicated to following best-practice principles in the rehabilitation of penguins, and other seabirds, that come into care due to illness, injury or misadventure, with the aim of preparing them for successful release back into the wild.

